Hallie Ford Museum of Art Visit

Assignment ::

Salem is home to the Hallie Ford Museum of Art, the only liberal arts college art museum in the Northwest. Owned by Willamette University and located near its campus, the museum has one of the most significant collections of Northwest art in the region and is a leader in research on art in the area.

Hallie Ford
Museum of Art

Your assignment is to visit the Hallie Ford Museum sometime between now and November 9th and share your experience by answering the questions listed on this assignment. The museum is open Tuesday–Saturday; Noon–5:00pm, and admission is free if you show your Chemeketa ID. Plan to explore the museum for an hour or more. You can learn more about the Hallie Ford from their website:

As you make your way through the museum, look closely at work that connects with you, and don't try to take everything in all at once. Think about the questions in this assignment, taking notes or drawing pictures in your sketchbook as needed. Type up your answers in the Canvas assignment and submit it by the beginning of class on Tuesday, November 12th, 2024 (Week 07).

Questions ::

Use the space below for notes as you reflect on your time in the museum.

- 01 Based on your overall experience, describe what you see in the museum: your first impressions, the mood and atmosphere, the textures, materials, and smells.

- 02 Discuss two of the pieces you experienced today, revealing the impact they had on you and why.

- 03 Was there a particular collection that you connected with? Why do you think you did?

- 04 Describe some of the feelings both before and after you experienced the museum.

- 05 How can an appreciation and understanding of fine art help us in the graphic arts?
